A message from the Director, Gail Stansmore

I would like to thank Rene, Sam, Nicky and Liz for all their help. Without their assistance and support none of what you watch today would be possible. A big thank you to all the junior members of the Society for all their hard work, learning their lines, and for putting on a great show. To watch them all grow in confidence on and off stage is a huge reward for the hard work that is put in by everyone.
